ONE NATION UNDER GOD...Be a Proud Catholic American citizen

March, 2010

CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE:

To all my Brother Knights, Columbiettes, Squires & Scouts,

I, (a 52 year member of our Order), not only welcome but congratulate all the new members of St. John's Council #1345, one of the best Councils in the State of New Jersey. You have joined the largest Catholic, Fraternal Service organization in the World (not even to mention the largest, lay order in the Mystical Body of Christ). During the past decade, the Order (Knights of Columbus) has donated more than $1.325 billion to Charity and provided nearly 626 million volunteer hours (many of them yours).

Now to the heart of the message.

A few years ago, a very holy priest told us about the "Secret to Holiness" in the Columbia (the monthly magazine of the Knights of Columbus). So during the Holy Season of Lent, we started climbing the Mystic Mountain of Holiness by attending more Holy Masses, saying more Rosaries daily if possible for the Rosary defeated the superior Muslim Armada in 1571 and then the Saintly Pope Pius V gave us The Feast of the Holy Rosary – October 7. Fidelity to that same Holy Rosary will also defeat the Neo-Pagan Forces of the 21st Century.

And finally as we climb that Mystic Mountain of Holiness, we read the beautiful Gospel of St. Luke (15:11-32). Pope Benedict XVI says about the parable "perhaps the most beautiful of Jesus' parables". It is known as the Parable of the Prodigal Son. It would be better to be called "the Parable of the Good Father" (LOVE).

Incidentally, the quotes of the Pope are taken from his book "Jesus of Nazareth". You still have the whole month of March (31 plus days) before the Sacred Triduum (Holy Thursday – End of Lent, Good Friday, Holy Saturday). In those 31 days, you and I will continue to climb that Mystic Mountain of Holiness and pray that all young, middle age, and old make a Successful Journey and Become the Easter people that Christ suffered and died for. With Christ, you can hear more Holy Masses, say more Holy Rosaries and read more Scripture.

Quote of the month: "I am with you always, even to the end of the world" (St. Matthew 28:20).

Vivat Jesus,

Fr. John F. Murray, S.M.A.

Chaplain of St. John's Council #1345 (Senior Knights);
Father Prior of St. Dominic Savio Circle #1622 (Junior Knights);
Chaplain of the St. John's Columbiettes (Ladies Auxiliary);
State Father Prior of the Columbian Squires (Junior Knights).

GRAND KNIGHTS MESSAGE:

Brother Knights, Columbiettes, Squires, & Scouts,

The Council will most certainly be going through a bit of our own March Madness this month. You need only spend a few minutes browsing through this month's bulletin to see how busy and blessed we are. I want to take this opportunity to sincerely thank everyone that gives their heart and soul to make St John's Council a special place to come together fraternally, socially and most importantly...spiritually. If you don't usually participate I would invite you to start now. The hour or two you spend making this Council more your own will come back to you tenfold. I promise you will be enriched by the experience.

On the subject of blessings, have you ever heard of Dayenu? I never had until I came across it in a book I'm reading. Dayenu is a prayer that is sung during the Jewish celebration of Passover. The word Dayenu means "that alone would have been enough but for that alone we are grateful". It is giving thanks to God for all He has done for us with no expectation of receiving anything more. The beauty of it stopped me in my tracks. What an amazing place from which to approach our Lord, especially during the season of Lent. Not that every day is some Pollyanna smile-fest or anything but it can be too easy to focus on the challenges and pains our Lord puts in our path that I can sometimes lose sight of how blessed I am. So the next time my kids wake me up at 6am on a weekend, or my back goes out, or work keeps me up for 36 hours troubleshooting an issue I will try to stay focused on the meaning of Dayenu.

Vivat Jesus,

Tom

Religious & Civil Rights

Bill Donohue from the Catholic League is dead on about a recent report put out by the International Planned Parenthood Federation. Not only does this report advocate sexual liberation for children as young as 10, it also compares the Catholic Church to radical Islamists.

I do try to approach all the supposed attacks on our Faith with an open mind, but I'm not sure how not to be outraged by this report. My children are 5 and 4. For them I will stand in firm opposition to the world in which the IPPF seems to want to create. I will do so with the love that Christ instructs to hold for our enemies and with respect but I will not lay down and surrender. Please join me.

Directory

Have you ever needed a plumber but were a little bit leery of calling someone blind from the yellow pages. I was, so I called one of my Brother Knights who recommended Greg Ryan, a member of our Council and a terrific plumber. When I called he came right over, gave me an honest assessment and an honest price. It was a great relief.

With that thought in mind the Officers and I would like to compile a directory of services for members and friends to gain the same type of peace of mind. If you, or someone in your immediate family, run a business please use the attached form to share their information.

Troop 1345 Boy Scouts

Boy Scout Troop 1345 in Dumont continues its growth as it begins to enter its third year, thanks in part to the strong support from the Knights of Columbus family.

The first two years of success have caught the attention of the younger Cub Scouts in Dumont, and the troop is anticipating a record number of new Boy Scouts after they achieve their Arrow of Light awards at the end of February.

These new Boy Scouts will join Troop 1345 in March, although their "official" bridging ceremony will be held at Camp Alpine on April 18.

Troop 1345 will be making a trip to Washington DC on March 26-27-28. The Scouts will explore the national monuments while learning about citizenship in the nation and American heritage.

Questions about the troop, or anyone interested in joining, can contact Keith Hilcken at 201-993-4476 or by email at scoutmaster1345@aol.com.
